

Search & Seizure Policy

Philosophy

Renaissance Academy reserves the right to make searches of a student if there is a suspicion of misconduct.

Standards

While on school grounds and on school vehicles, the Administration, resource officer, or designee, reserve the right to search and seize any materials in violation of school policy. By federal law searches of a student (including clothing, pockets, backpack, purse, locker, etc.) while on school property will be conducted if there is reasonable suspicion or belief that a breach of school policy or law is being committed.
